

PHILANTHROPY EVALUATION COMMITTEE (PEC)

The purpose of the PEC is to:

- evaluate any potential new Philanthropy that applies for formal support from JCYM
- evaluate all current Philanthropies on an annual basis to determine on-going support
- evaluate and investigate any concerns raised by JCYM members regarding an existing Philanthropy.

The Philanthropy Evaluation Committee is comprised of the President, President-Elect, Member-at-Large (Distribution of Funds Chair), One member appointed by the President (2-year term) and to ensure consistency and continuity, the Philanthropy-Elect would serve over the next four years as: Philanthropy-Elect (year #1), Philanthropy Chair (year #2) who is the Chair of the PEC Committee, Previous Philanthropy Chair (year #3), and as a Past Philanthropy Chair (year #4).

All Philanthropies are evaluated using the following criteria:

- Aligns with JCYM Mission and statement of incorporation
- Successfully provides or will provide on-going service to the community
- Provides meaningful volunteer opportunities that JCYM members are qualified to perform
- Is or will be a 501(c)(3) organization • Is financially viable going forward
- Does not directly compete with any of our current philanthropies
